

Kindergarten Targets for 3rd Quarter

Using fine motor skills, your child can:

Tie shoes.

Do a nice job coloring.

Do a nice job cutting.

Print the numerals 0-10.

Print nicely on lined paper.

Print my letters correctly.

In language arts, your child can:

Tell his/her birthday.

Tell his/her phone number.

Tell his/her address.

Do phonemic awareness activities.

Tell the upper and lower case letters.

Listen to books and stories.

Use the right words when I speak.

Hear beginning sounds.

Say a word that rhymes with another word.

Understand the words we use in school.

Say what is the opposite.

Find a letter, word, and a sentence.

Tell what an author and an illustrator do.

Make Predictions about a story.

Write words by sounding them out.

In Science, your child can:

Make and test predictions.

Tell that living/non-living things in a group can differ.

In Math, your child can:

Count by 1's to 75.

Count by 10's to 100.

Count by 5's to 100.

Tell what is equal and half.

Name the numbers 0-10.

In Social Studies, your child can:

Tell that people follow rules so everyone is safe and happy.

Lifelong Learning Skills:

Your child can:

Work together well with classmates.

Treat others the way s/he wants to be treated.

Listen with eyes, ears, and heart.

Follow directions.

Follow school rules

Follow classroom rules.

Use self-control.

Demonstrate organization.

Work independently.

Complete work in a timely manner.

Show effort.

Participate in class activities and discussions.